

King & Gibson Advertising

In business since 1983, King and Gibson Advertising is a full service-advertising agency with clients around the region. Our reputation is solid and you can depend on us to provide the service you require in the shortest time possible.

A website is imperative for anyone in business who provides goods or services to the market. More and more of your potential customers are searching for information about you on the web. It is now vital that your information be available online.

We specialize in building fundamental business web sites, which will include, but are not limited to information listed below.

- Home page. with graphics
- Contact us Page. all contact info & map
- About us Page. your company history
- Customer testimonials. if applicable
- Our products. including photos
- Links. to other web sites
- Order. emailable form to order your products.

The information above is fundamental to any business web site. Our one-time charge will get you up and running online. We also optimize your site to search engines so it appears in web searches.

Your web site will be completed to your satisfaction based on the information you provide us. We require half payment before starting your site and half upon satisfactory completion or a period of 60 days. Once the site is completed, future changes, additions or deletions can be made for you on an hourly basis.
